Introduction

This booklet contains four Progress tests and one Summary test for the Language in Use Beginner course. Each of the Progress tests covers six units in the Classroom Book. The Summary test is for use at the end of the course, and makes use of material from all units. All five tests have the same format. There is an Answer key and Marking guide on pages 30–31.

Each test has two components:

- a written paper, covering grammar, vocabulary, reading and writing.
- an (optional) oral test, in which pairs of students speak to the examiner and to each other.

While the main aim is to help learners measure their progress as they go through Language in Use, both written and oral tests also give practice in techniques needed for public examinations such as the Cambridge Key English Test (KET).

The written component

This has eight sections. 70 marks are available.

Section A: Sentences (10 marks)

There are ten multiple choice gapped sentences (each with three options). The questions cover a range of grammar and vocabulary.

Section B: Words (5 marks)

This is a matching task on a lexical group. Learners choose five answers from seven options.

Section C: Replies (5 marks)

There are five multiple choice questions (each with three options). Learners have to complete five separate two-line exchanges.

Section D: Conversation (6 marks)

This is a matching task based on a short conversation. Learners choose six answers from eight options.

Section E: Gapped text (7 marks)

This is a three-option multiple choice cloze task. There are seven questions.

Section F: Reading (8 marks)

This is a reading comprehension task with eight multiple choice questions (each with three options).

Section G: Cloze (11 marks)

This is an open cloze task. Learners have to fill each gap with one suitable word. There are 11 gaps.

Section H: Writing (18 marks)

Three writing tasks. Students write short paragraphs (two or three sentences long) on a variety of topics. Some of the content is usually specified. There are six marks for each paragraph.

Note: The test takes 70 minutes. If this is longer than you have available, it can be given in two parts:

- Sections A–F, on the first three pages (the more receptive part of the test): 45 minutes.
- Sections G–H, on the final page (the more productive part of the test): 25 minutes.

The oral component

This component is optional. Two students take the test at a time together with an examiner. The test has two sections, and takes around 7–8 minutes. 20 marks are available.

Section A: Examiner–Student (10 marks)

In this section, the examiner asks the two students questions in turn. Each student has to:

- answer vocabulary questions, and spell one or two words.
- answer one or two questions on a topic concerning their own lives.
- talk briefly about a topic given by the examiner (three or four sentences).

Section B: Student–Student (10 marks)

In this section, the students talk to each other, using prompt cards. There are two kinds of activity:

either A asks B questions about him- or herself. B answers the questions.

or A asks B questions about e.g. a shop, a party. B answers using information on the prompt card.

Two sets of prompt cards are used during each test, giving both students an opportunity to ask questions and answer them.

Three people say what they did last Sunday. Read the texts, and answer the questions. Write ONE name for each answer. The first one has been done for you.

ANDY

I got up at about 11.00, I think. I had breakfast, and started to cook lunch for the family. We had chicken, with rice and salad.

It was a lovely day, so after lunch, we all cycled along the river. We bought some ice-creams and swam, and on the way home, we stopped at a Pizzeria for dinner.

In the evening, I did a bit of work around the house. Then I had some chocolate cake, and went to bed with a good book. I was asleep by 10.00.

BELLA

I've got a shop by the river, and we're open on Sundays, so I got up at about 8.00, had a quick cup of coffee, made a sandwich for lunch, and walked to the shop.

The shop was busy. It was a hot day, and lots of people wanted ice-creams, so I made quite a lot of money! We closed at 6.00.

In the evening, my husband and I had some pasta and salad. Then we put our feet up, had a glass of wine and watched TV. I went to bed at about 11.30.

CARL

I got up at about 8.00, walked to the newsagent's and got a paper. Then I had a few cups of coffee, and read the paper in the garden.

At lunchtime, I met some friends at the pub, and we had a few beers. It was a really hot day, so when I got back home I sat in the garden again and went to sleep.

It was a lovely evening, so my girlfriend came round and made a sandwich and some fresh lemonade. Then we watched TV until about 12.00.

School Journey, Friday 14 July

Dear Parents,

As you know, every year we take the children in Year 6 on a School Journey after they finish their summer examinations. This year we are going to Wales for the day. In the morning we are going to visit Chepstow Castle, which is the oldest castle in Britain, and in the afternoon we are going climbing in the Brecon Beacons.

The bus is leaving the school car park at 7.30 in the morning, and we hope to be back at the school by 9.00 in the evening. Please bring your child to the school fifteen minutes early. Children do not have to wear school clothes, but they must have a good pair of shoes or trainers, a warm jumper and a coat (it can be wet and windy, even in July!) and – if it's a sunny day – a hat and sun cream.

At lunchtime, we're having a picnic by the River Wye, so please give your child a packed lunch (sandwiches, fruit and a drink – not too many sweets and chocolates, please!). Please give your child breakfast before you leave home (they can't eat on the bus). In the evening, we're stopping at a motorway restaurant for dinner.

Children must bring a pen and paper, and it's a good idea to bring a (cheap!) camera.

The cost of the journey is £25. This covers the return bus journey, the entrance ticket for the Castle, and dinner. Children can take some money to spend on presents, but not more than £5, please.

Charles Holley was born in Lubbock, Texas, in September 1936. He learned to play the guitar and piano when he was still at school, and he started playing and singing with his best friend Bob Montgomery.

When they left school, Charles and Bob got a job singing country music on the radio in Lubbock: they had their own half-hour radio show every Sunday afternoon. Later, Charles and his band – the Three Tunes – sang at concerts in Lubbock with Bill Haley and the Comets, and with Elvis Presley.

In 1956, Charles changed his name to Buddy Holly, and signed a contract with Decca Records. In 1957, he wrote and recorded the song That'll be the Day with his new band, the Crickets. This was his first number one hit, and over the next two years, Buddy wrote seven more Top Forty hits, including Peggy Sue, Oh Boy! and Maybe Baby.

In 1958, Buddy married Elena Maria Santiago. He stopped working with the Crickets, and he and Elena went to live in New York.

That winter, he went on a concert tour of the American Midwest. On February 3rd 1959, after a show in Clear Lake, Iowa, Buddy got on a plane with two other singers, to fly to their next concert in Minnesota. The plane left the airport at 2.00 in the morning, and crashed into a field a few minutes later. Everyone on the plane died.
